TWIN BROTHERS IN A DUEL .- A novel street duel, took place Saturday morning in Woodstown, N. J., between John and William Seagraves, twin brothers, who so closely resemble each other that their friends cannot tell them

John runs a restaurant known as the "Duck's Nest," and William is a horse-trainer at Foulk's stables at the fair While the lattter was paying attention to a comely married woman who has separated from her husband, John sought her favor, and so successfully that he soon became installed in the house as a boarder. John's duplicity engendered bad blood between the brothers, and about a month ago Wil-

Saturday morning John and William met in front of the Presbyterian church. The former was afoot and the latter was in an open wagon. An angry al-tercation ensued, ending in William attercation ensued, ending in William attacking his brother with a rope halter.
He used this weapon effectively until John reached for his revolver. He says he intended to use the butt end on William's head, but the pistol was accidentally discharged, shooting John through the hand and knocking two teeth out. The ball lodged in his neck.

DISTRESSING SCENE AT A FUNERAL. A distressing scene was caused at New Brunswick, on Friday, at the funeral of the late Mrs. Hattie Donnegan, wife of John Donnegan. Mrs. Donnegan was the daughter of A. G. Purdy. While the funeral was in progress at the house, and the friends and relatives were taking the last look at the corpse, Mrs. Lahey, mother of Mr. Donnegan, came and stood beside the coffin, for-bidding the dead wife's relatives from approaching. She became so violent and determined that Policeman Joseph Kelly was called and had to remove Mrs. Lahey by main force before the ceremony of leave taking could go on. The immediate relatives then looked upon and kissed the features of the dead. When the husband came forward to kiss his dead wife, Mrs. Lahey declared that he should not do so, except upon a portion of her features which had not been touched by her relatives. This caused another trouble, and Mrs. Lahey had to be again re moved. The conduct of Mrs. Lahey caused the greatest distress to all the friends and relatives of the deceased woman, who was highly esteemed by all who knew her. After the leave taking was over the corpse was borne to St. Peter's church, where the ser-vices were held.

The Standard Phosphate Mining and Chemical Company of Alexandria, Va., is now selling to the farmers of this and other States, their NON ACID PHOSPHATE.

This New Natural Fertilizer contains 24 per cent. of Phosohoric Acid, with 5 per cent. of this amount available on present crops, leaving as a PERMANENT IMPROVER of the soil 19 per cent. to be drawn on by succeeding crops.

A HUGE RATTLER.—Mr. J. H. Hinkins, of this place, was loading tanibark on Massanutton Mountain a couple of miles from Strasburg, the other day, when he heard the usual warning indicating the presence of a rattle-sealing crops. the soil 19 per cent. to be drawn on by succeeding crops.

It is especially recommended for wheat and grass, and will bring equal results with any phosphate now sold.

The price for this new fertilizer is in reach of every farmer. Write for prices and circulars,

THE PASTOR'S WIFE A FLIRT .-- A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., says "Methodist Church circles throughout northern West Virginia are agitated by charges of wife beating and shocking brutality which were formally preferred against Rev. C. W. Milam, and a church trial on Saturday resulted in a recommendation to reprimand him. Rev. Milam at once resigned his pastorate. It is alleged that the facts are even more serious than brought out at the trial, while the minister's friendscharged serious indiscretions against his wife, alleging that she provoked her husband by numerous flirtations with other men.
